

RAY-O-LITE (AUST) Pty Ltd
Making roads worldwide safer for over 30 years
 PO Box 1156
 UNANDERRA NSW 2526
 Phone (02) 4271 5056
 Mobile (0407) 473 889
 Email: sales@rayolite.com.au

“Ray-O-Flap” Lane Dividers

|                            |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  |  |
|----------------------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--|
| DESCRIPTION         | Moulded durable rubber with reflective lens and disc for multiple uses where a delineator is required that is both visible and audible to the motorist                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           |  |
| USES                | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Centreline Marking</li> <li>• Lane Marking</li> <li>• Highway Edge Marking</li> <li>• Limited Access Highway Ramps</li> <li>• Wall-Mounted Bridge and Tunnel Marking</li> <li>• Construction Zones</li> <li>• Colour Coding of areas</li> <li>• Entrances – Acceleration Lanes</li> <li>• Exits – Deceleration Lanes</li> <li>• Service – Low Speed Lanes</li> <li>• Main Travel – High Speed Lanes</li> <li>• Fire Hydrants</li> </ul> |  |
| PHYSICAL PROPERTIES | Dimensions: Base 200mm x 100mmDimensions: Flap 125mmReflective Sheeting Hi Intensity Class 1 on AluminiumAvailable as: 2 way or combinationWhite, Yellow, Red/YellowProduct Codes: LD2W, LD2Y, LD2RY                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         |  |
| SURFACE PREPARATION | Surface should be dry and clean of dust and debris. Sweep away with a hand broom any loose materials.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            |  |
| APPLICATION         | Ray-O-Flap's have been successfully applied using either; bitumen pad, bitumen adhesive or epoxy. Refer respective manufacturer's installation of correct method of application.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 |  |
| PACKAGING           | Ray-O-Lite Markers are packed in boxes of 20.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    |  |

Flyer Ray-O-Flap

View our full range of road marking products at www.rayolite.com.au

